Dear GCSGD Families and Community Members,

Welcome back to another exciting school year! As your superintendent, I am thrilled to greet you as we embark on a new chapter together. Our commitment to providing a nurturing and innovative educational environment remains steadfast, and we are eager to support each student in his/her academic and personal growth.

The strength and resilience of our school community have been remarkable. We remain very proud to share that the Loudon Tribal Council, the City of Galena, and the entire community are ready to embrace and support your child(ren) this year. Galena's dedication to educational excellence enhances the nurturing and supportive atmosphere we strive to create in our schools.

We are also introducing new programs and initiatives to enhance learning experiences and to support our students' diverse needs. From our aviation program set to launch in a few weeks, to expanded extracurricular opportunities for all ages, and to a steadfast commitment to empowering our students in support of their personal well-being – our goal is to ensure that every student has the resources to excel.

We encourage open communication and invite you to engage with us throughout the year. Your feedback and involvement are crucial as we strive to create the best learning environment for our students.

Thank you for your continued support. Let's make this year memorable, filled with growth and achievement! We look forward to working alongside you to positively impact our students' lives, and I hope that everyone has a safe, joyful, and bountiful harvest season in the upcoming weeks.

Most Sincerely,

Jason R. Johnson, Ed.D.

Superintendent
